Public Temple Moments

As March begins, I want to mention two very public Temple Emanuel moments which make me so proud.

But first - I want to say how much I am looking forward to this summer when we will welcome Rabbi Amy Hertz to Temple Emanuel as our newest Rabbi Educator. I hope that you saw the announcement last month. As we prepare for Rabbi Hertz and her wife Beth Goldstein to join our community, we will also have a number of opportunities, which we will announce soon, to express our gratitude to Rabbi Libby Fisher, to congratulate her for her three years with us, and to bless her as she takes her next steps with Congregation Kol Ami in White Plains, NY.

Public Temple Emanuel Moment #1: The Brand-New Permanent Art Installation Near Temple's Sanctuary Entrance. It is built to look like a road sign with one word on it in large-font Hebrew: Yerushalayim. Yerushalayim, or Jerusalem in English, is to our east which is where this Jerusalem-quarried limestone sign is pointing. In smaller characters under the Hebrew it says "6140 mi." which is the distance from Greensboro to Jerusalem.

In addition to the statue's simple beauty, there are so many creative ways to interpret its design, including why it is pointing slightly upwards. In a recent TikTok posting to the "Temple Emanuel" account, I shared a few creative teachings. If you haven't already seen it, I encourage you to take a few minutes to do so.

Dr. Jerry Plovsky deserves tremendous credit for dreaming up this project, working with dozens of people to assist with the design and the funding, and managing the many conversations with Temple stakeholders and decision-makers. I think that the appearance of this newest part of Temple is perfectly-timed and I look forward to celebrating its official dedication, likely during Shabbat services, in the near future.

Public Temple Emanuel Moment #2: A Feature Article In The Current Issue (March 2024) Of Our State Magazine. Entitled "Cookies With A Cause," this write-up highlights our Temple's annual Project Hamantaschen. Project Hamantaschen began during 2021 when some COVID restrictions were still in place. Knowing that Purim would not be taking place in-person, we sought a way to connect congregants nonetheless. We asked families to volunteer: bakers to make as many Hamantaschen as possible, others to make creative plates with the "cookies" on them, and still others to deliver these Purim goodies to Jewish seniors living throughout our area.

You likely have encountered Project Hamantaschen at some point over the past three years.

In this month's bulletin, you will see great opportunities to celebrate Purim this year. I look forward to seeing you at one or another of our gatherings.

But, I also hope that you will sign up to be part of Project Hamantaschen. For me, the recognition that Temple received in a statewide magazine confirms what we know: that our congregation finds the ways to lift up Judaism as well as our families, no matter their stage, age, or setting.

Thanks again to all who have made Project Hamantaschen so special for many years. A "thanks-in-advance" to all who will continue this tradition again in 2024. And a big Temple todah rabbah (Hebrew for thank you) to our friends at Our State magazine for sharing what we did with readers throughout the Old North State.

My best wishes and blessings,

Rabbi Andy Koren

Senior Rabbi

Temple Talk with Paul

Welcome Rabbi Amy Hertz! Please join me in welcoming our new Rabbi Educator, Amy Hertz! Rabbi Hertz will begin working with us July 1st. Amy Epstein and the Search Committee guided us through the rabbinic search process with dedication, professionalism, and kindness. It was truly a pleasure to be part of the process and see our community represented so well. Thank you and yasher koach.

Rabbi Amy Hertz

The Jewish Festival is April 7, 2024. Our largest fundraiser of the year brings in over half of our total annual fundraising dollars in one day - but it takes a village to organize and make this event successful. Please register online to volunteer and become a Friend of the Festival with a donation of $100 or more. The festival is our chance to welcome our neighbors and familiarize the larger community with Temple Emanuel and Judaism. Hopefully, we will do our small part to counteract ignorance and fear about Jewish people, traditions, and organizations. While you browse the food and activities (before or after volunteering) look for some new and exciting offerings, such as Israeli Whiskey tasting.

We need you. Volunteering is easy and rewarding and starts with joining a committee. Take a look at some opportunities online at www.tegreensboro.org/get-involved or call the Temple office. Your ideas and input are needed, and it doesn't have to be a huge commitment. There are many different ways to help, and it's a wonderful way to get to know Temple members you might not otherwise meet. You will meet and get to know your Board of Trustees members, which is a great way to be informed about what's happening at your Temple.

Warm weather pickleball is here. I'm going to try it, and I hope to see lots of you there! The pickleball court is set up on the basketball court, just call the office and set up a time.

Mission Statement

Temple Emanuel strives to be a place of Keruv, of closeness to God and Jewish culture. Temple Emanuel’s mission is to bring its congregants closer to: Tikkun Olam - The commitment to repair God’s world through the pursuit of justice; Tikkun Nefesh - Personal and spiritual growth as a Jew and as a human being; Talmud Torah - Life-long study of Torah and of Jewish history and tradition; Am Yisrael - The Jewish people, in Greensboro, the United States, Israel, and worldwide; Eretz Yisrael - The land, people, and the state of Israel; Mishpacha -A sense of extended family through a warm and supportive atmosphere and Reform Judaism - Its principles and values.

Diversity and Inclusivity Statement

Temple Emanuel is committed to inclusivity: Hachnasat Orchim (Hospitality) means welcoming people of different cultural backgrounds, races, nationalities, sexual orientations, genders, gender identities, gender expressions, physical and mental abilities, and ages. We recognize Jewish identity from both matrilineal and patrilineal descent. Our Rabbis are open to officiating at Jewish ceremonies for interfaith marriages. Appreciating the critical role played by non-Jewish parents in the upbringing of Jewish children, we encourage full participation in congregational and religious life by interfaith families.
