Looking Forward to the New Year

I hope everyone had an uplifting New Year celebration and is ready for another busy year. Thank you to Rabbis Koren, Fisher and Guttman for the outstanding high holiday services and programming. You delivered sermons that made us contemplate and look inside ourselves for ways to implement the lessons of High Holidays. Thank you to our Cantorial Soloist, the choir, all our special guest musicians, and shofar chorale, and thank you to our volunteer ushers, and staff for making sure everything ran as smoothly, as always.

I'd like to share some of the things that are happening here at Temple

Emanuel.

- We are already a week into our adult education classes. Please check them out, information is in the bulletin and online about future adult education classes.
- Sukkot and Simchat Torah are over and we had a wonderful time at the Shehechyanu Party on Oct 16.
- Planning for the next Jewish Festival is underway - please put March 26, 2023 on your calendar and be part of this amazing project. (More on page 10)
- The new Security committee is hard at work considering options to safeguard our congregants and facilities.
- The Education committee and Kesher staff are updating our contingency plans to keep our children safe while at school.
- Thank you to the Brotherhood for again raising the Sukkah and the membership committee for the wonderful decorations and fabulous welcome party for newcomers.
- The Sisterhood book club is meeting in person. Thank you to Tracy Simon for keeping the Gift shop up and running. She could use a little help! (hint, hint)
- The Archive committee has partnered with UNCG to digitize our records. Look for them to be online soon!
- The Terumah committee held a second workshop and developed some wonderful ideas to help communicate with the congregation how donations are used to provide programming and education.

Again and again, I am reminded what an amazing group of volunteers we have at the Temple. Please contact the Temple staff or me to join in on this rewarding work. Our community is so much better with your involvement.

Lastly, I would like to welcome Mallory Ward, our new Administrative Assistant and Shira Snyder, our new Programming Director to our Temple family! Please stop by the office and introduce yourselves. (More on page 11)

Upcoming November Events

Join Temple Emanuel on November 4 at 6:30p for our Board Installation service at Greene Street. We are so excited to be back at 713 North Greene Street for our first Friday shabbat, so come and join us that evening!

Temple Emanuel's Immigration Sub-Committee and Definition Church en Espanol will be holding an event on November 5 at 5:00p at Definition Church (Merritt Drive Campus).

It will be a cultural exchange to further the relationship among both congregations. It is a family friendly program so children are welcome. It is potluck style, so attendees are asked to bring a dish from their culture. The official invitation will be sent via email for people interested to register. No knowledge of Spanish is required for this event.

Or register at <https://signup.com/go/wzZdqHH>.

6 Points Havdalah on November 5 at 6:30p. Do you love Jewish summer camp? Are you already a 6 Points camp family? Are you considering sending your kids to Jewish summer camp for the first time and want to know more about some of our amazing Reform Movement options? If the answer to any of these questions is YES, please join us with your whole family on Saturday, November 5th at 6:30p to celebrate Havdalah with URJ 6 Points! We'll hear presentations from URJ 6 Points Sports, Creative Arts Academy, and Sci-Tech, as well as participating in camp activities and end with Havdalah together!

Join Aviv on Sunday November 13 at 11:00a to paint our new garden beds and get them ready for planting! We'll have coffee + tea, with a bring-your-own picnic lunch. Painting and playground all kid-friendly. Aviv will be meeting at the ECEC Temple Emanuel Playground. Register at www.tegreensboro.org/upcomingevents

Temple Emanuel's Stitching Group is back! Please join us in the library, Monday afternoons from 1:00-3:00p, for fun and friendship while you enjoy working on your projects.

Carol Rauch is taking the initiative on this one.

Email carolrauch@me.com for questions and suggestions.

The stitching group is going out to lunch, to Bravo! Italian Kitchen, on November 14. If you would like to go, please RSVP to Carol Rauch at carolrauch@me.com by November 10. Hope you can join us!

December Teaser

Things to look forward to:

December 18- To welcome the First night of Hanukkah, Temple Emanuel will be having a large event full of fried goodness. There will be food, candle lighting, and more! More details to come!

December 23- Shabbanukkah is back! Join Temple for a fun Hanukkah Friday night service.

December 24- A night of Asian food hosted by our Rabbi Andy! There will be time for everyone to connect and enjoy each other's company while eating some yummy Asian food.

Our Word Cloud

I recently saw a "word cloud" for the month of November. In a word cloud, the biggest words are the ones mentioned most frequently. Thanksgiving, family, football, autumn, and pumpkin were among the terms that stood out.

What would a Temple Emanuel word cloud for November look like?

NCCJ, aka North Carolina for Community and Justice. Besides having its offices on the campus of our historic Temple downtown, the NCCJ of the Piedmont Triad's mission truly resonates with ideas central to Reform Judaism. Whether working to counter bias, bigotry, racism, and antisemitism, or connecting with youth from diverse places throughout our area, the NCCJ has been a key partner of Temple Emanuel for as long as anyone can remember.

Tom and Linda Sloan will be honored as Citation Award Recipients at the NCCJ dinner which takes place annually each November. Their work in our area, and especially with Temple Emanuel, is legendary; the NCCJ will celebrate what we as a Temple have known for a long time. I am so proud of Tom and Linda and truly grateful for all that they have done within and beyond our congregation for decades. Their leadership has been invaluable! I, together with so many who will be at the Citation Dinner, look forward to celebrating them for this high honor.

Each year at the NCCJ dinner I look at the decades-long list of Citation recipients; if I am not mistaken, roughly 20% of all honorees are Temple Emanuel members. They include civic leaders, business icons, our Rabbi Emeritus, and dedicated volunteers. Not only that, NCCJ Board leaders and students involved in their various programs have deep ties to Temple. NCCJ would rightfully appear large in Temple's November word cloud.

A second larger word for November would be elections. Each November we have elections in the US. If you are registered and have yet to vote, I encourage you and others in your family/friend circle to do so. I also want to lift up the work of the many Temple members who have dedicated their efforts to this central American right. From those who have been involved in Get Out The Vote campaigns, to those who have led voter registration drives, to those who have advocated for voting rights and so much more, your efforts have been in line with the time-honored stances taken by Temple Rabbis and our movement.

This November will also mark the fifth time in four years that Israelis are going to the polls. While the outcome of American elections are often easy to analyze within hours or days of the end of voting, the same cannot be said about Israeli elections. It takes roughly three months for Governments to form. The question in recent years, and one of the reasons why there have been so many elections, is if a government can be formed. If not, there may be a sixth election in the not-so-distant future. We will just have to wait and see.

Speaking of Israel, November is an important month in modern Jewish history, at least as it relates to the creation of Israel. In early November of 1917, as the Ottoman Empire was collapsing, the British government issued the Balfour Declaration recognizing the right for a "national home for the Jewish people" in our historic lands. 30 years later, on Thanksgiving weekend of 1947, the United Nations voted on the partition resolution, giving legal recognition for a Jewish state to be created following the end of the British Mandate for Palestine.

Last but not least, Thanksgiving is a major entry in our November word cloud too. For years, we have broken this into two words: thanks and giving. While gratitude is something that we will always emphasize, we have focused more on giving, especially to those who might otherwise go without. I hope that you will be generous to local hunger relief projects, just as we were this High Holidays when our Corners of the Field collection brought over 2000 pounds of food to the Jewish Family Services' Food Pantry. Make it a point to participate in Greensboro Urban Ministry's Feast of Caring, whether in person or remotely. Make this more than just a time of gratitude; make it a time of dedicated giving!

My best wishes and blessings -

Rabbi Andy Koren

Schmooze with the Rabbis featuring Rabbi Ron Kronish

November 16 at 12 noon | on Zoom

Join us as we get a chance to learn from Rabbi Ron Kronish about his book Profiles in Peace.

In his new book he "will profile the lives, thoughts, feelings, and actions of six important peacebuilders-men and women, secular and religious: three Jewish Israelis ... and three Palestinian Arabs.... The reader will learn about their visions for peace and their actions to bring their ideals to fruition, as much as possible, in the real world of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict."

This will be an incredibly insightful opportunity of learning so come with an open mind and curious questions. To learn more about Rabbi Ron Kronish visit his website www.ronkronish.com. To register visit www.tegreensboro.org/upcomingevents.

Friendship Circle lunch and program | November 30 | 12 Noon

Come for a delicious lunch prepared in-house; greet old friends and make new ones.

Program: Microbes and Us with Robert Cannon will discuss current health issues: Alzheimer's, dementia, Covid, the flu, etc. Rob Cannon (Ph.D., University of Delaware) is a Professor Emeritus of Biology at UNC-Greensboro. His research and teachings were focused on microbiology, immunology and virology. He also taught for the Honors Program and was Graduate Director for the Master of Arts in Liberal Studies (MALS) Program. This Fall will mark 50 years of teaching at UNC-Greensboro for him. If you are interested in attending contact Brenda at bhenley@tegreensboro.org or call the Temple office.

Chevra Torah | In-person or on Zoom

The community is welcome to join us every Saturday morning, 9:00-10:30a, for our master class, Chevra Torah. This study group, led by one of our rabbis, explores the weekly Torah portion. No prerequisite knowledge is needed and all, regardless of background, are welcome to attend. There is no charge for this class.

Coffee & Connections | on Zoom

Connect with Temple Members through casual conversation during Coffee & Connections every Friday at 10:00a on Zoom. Grab your beverage of choice and join us! (No meeting on November 25th)

Community Happenings

Greensboro Jewish Community Blood Drive Sunday, November 6 | 9:00a-2:00p

Greensboro Jewish Federation, 5509-C West Friendly Avenue, Greensboro

To register please use this link: Schedule a Blood, Platelet or Plasma Donation | American Red Cross \(redcrossblood.org\).

NCCJ Dinner | Wednesday, November 9 | 6:00p-9:30p

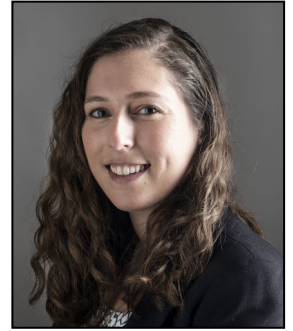

Linda and Tom Sloan are being honored by NCCJ at the Annual Citation Award Dinner on Wednesday, November 9. Both Linda and Tom have been very active in Temple life for many years in many capacities, and the Temple is a much better place for their involvement here. This honor is truly deserved! Buy your tickets at <https://www.nccjtriad.org/citation/> or call the Temple office if interested in joining the Temple table.

Feast of Caring | November 17 | 11:30a-1:30p and 5:00p-7:00p

Every year, on the Thursday before Thanksgiving, the Greensboro community comes together to fight hunger by participating in the Feast of Caring. During the holiday season, many face hunger and are unable to sit down to a holiday feast. They will be alone, hungry and in crisis. All proceeds come back to Greensboro Urban Ministry programs to fight hunger, homelessness, and poverty in our community. Temple Emanuel was highlighted in Our State which highlighted the Feast of Caring. Temple has always been active and big supporter of the Feast of Caring, we hope the Temple community will attend the Feast this year. Go to <https://www.greensborourbanministry.org/home/feast-of-caring> for more information.

Time to Relax

Welcome to the Hebrew month of Cheshvan, the only month which has zero Jewish holidays in it! This month started in October and immediately follows Tishrei, which includes Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Sukkot, and Simchat Torah. After all those wonderful celebrations and introspection, this might feel like a bit of a let-down. In fact, that's why this month's other name is "Marcheshvan," which literally means "bitter Cheshvan." But it's also possible to look at this month as an opportunity for a breather. Our spirits have been on high alert for the past month, and now we can take a pause to just... relax. When was the last time you just relaxed? If you're like me, it has probably been a while! There is a social media account I follow called The Nap Ministry, and they're tagline is "Rest is Resistance." They believe that resting is a form of power. The founder, Tricia Hersey, wrote, "You don't have to always be creating, doing, and 'contributing' to the world. Your birth grants you rest and leisure as well." While this is not a Jewish organization, this is certainly a Jewish concept as well – just as God rested, so should we be able to rest. This month, I encourage us all to take that time to recharge and relax.

ShinShinot

Hi, everyone! We are Maskit and Noya, the ShinShinot from Israel! We came to the Jewish community in Greensboro to volunteer for one year between high school and our military service. During the year we will lead activities about Israel for children and adults! Every month we will publish our monthly topic and write an article to give you all a taste of the coming month!

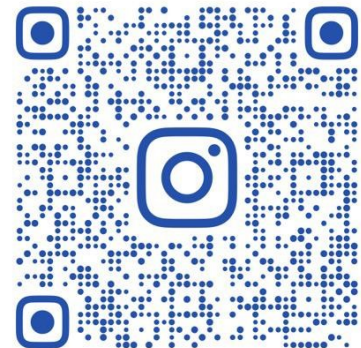

For example, in the month of September we talked about Israeli inventions and in the month of October we studied and discussed cultures in Israel! Throughout the months we learned a lot!

Making sukkah decorations at Kesher

The theme of November is Israeli sports! We will learn about Israeli sports teams, do Israeli sports tournaments and even do the Maccabiah! We are really looking forward to the month of November!

The Jewish Festival is Coming!

Do you have fond memories of walking around the Jewish Festival, eating amazing food surrounded by friends and our great community? Well you do not have to wait too much longer! Mark your calendars, a full In-person Jewish Festival will be back on March 26, 2023!

We have compiled a great group of people to make sure we shine and show the community what an amazing Temple and Community we have. Moving it to the Spring has allowed us to have more time to make sure our return to a full festival is even better.

However, the event wouldn't be a success without our wonderful volunteers, and we sincerely hope that all Temple members will contribute to helping make our return to a full festival a success. Please watch for further communications on volunteer opportunities and sign up through our Sign up Genius to volunteer.

With the return of our full in-person festival, here is what you can look forward to:

- The same amazing Jewish food you crave throughout the year
- Lots of great vendors to shop, now inside and out. You will have the space to really look and see what great goodies you can collect
- Kids zone with inflatables and crafts (and of course cotton candy)
- Music and Entertainment that will get you dancing and singing
- Sanctuary Tours by our amazing Rabbis
- New to the Festival, The Passover Shuk, collect everything you will need to celebrate and more
- The Wall will be up to add your special notes to be brought to Israel
- Best of all, the opportunity to spend time with friends and family

Save the date and tell all your friends in the Jewish Community and Greensboro area!

October Recap

High Holidays

It was lovely to see a full sanctuary for the high holidays. Thank you to all of the ushers, musicians, staff, volunteers, and everyone who made the holiday services and celebrations possible.

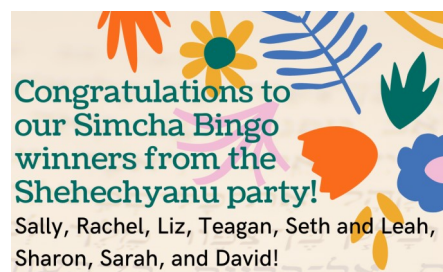

Also thank you to everyone who donated food to the JFS Food Pantry and all of the volunteers who helped deliver the food to the pantry. The donated food is always greatly appreciated and encouraged throughout the whole year so please keep giving to the hungry and those in need.

The Shehechyanu Party was fun and really brought the community together. It was great to see everyone enjoy each other's company and celebrate as a community.

Several people played Simcha Bingo and won Menchie's coupons! (Congratulations to our winners!)

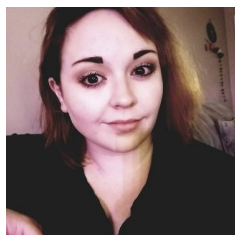

The Simcha boards will stay up for a while longer for everyone to get a chance to share different occasions they didn't get to celebrate with the community during Covid.

There will also be papers out in the lobby for people to write their Covid stories and add to the Temple Emanuel Scrapbook.

New Staff

We have two new staff members here at Temple. Take time to reach out and introduce yourself to them. Here is more about them!

Originally from Las Vegas, NV and raised on the west coast, Mallory Ward is a new resident to Greensboro, after moving here from Sanford with her partner. She has a Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree in Costume Design from University of Las Vegas, Nevada. Mallory held numerous positions in the Entertainment Industry throughout the Southern Nevada region and Central Coast of California. She worked on the Las Vegas Strip overseeing costume and wardrobe management, as well as teaching at a children's theatre. Mallory has also assisted on two touring Broadway productions. She previously worked in Lillington for a Forestry Consulting Agency and in Raleigh at a Funeral Home and Cemetery. She is excited to be a part of Temple Emanuel.

Shira Snyder is a recent graduate from UNCG, she studied Biology at UNCG in her Undergraduate and Nanoscience for her Masters. She grew up not too far away in Chapel Hill and has now lived in the area for six years. She is very connected to her Jewish identity and is very involved in the Jewish community here in Greensboro. Before joining the Temple she worked for the Jewish Foundation of Greensboro. She is very excited to be here at Temple and to put together fun programs for the community.

Early Childhood

Shalom Chaverim,

WOW! The last 2 months have been incredibly busy, busy, busy as well as joyous! First off, I would like to thank everyone who helped to support The Early Childhood Engagement Center by purchasing their round challah for our High Holidays fundraiser Todah Rabah! With your help our school raised over $700.00 dollars. I would also like to give a huge Todah Rabah to Marty and Steven Goldfarb. The Goldfarb family has generously offered to match up to $5,000 in donations by the end of the year for the preschool! For many years, the Goldfarb family have been donors to our Preschool through The Sara Jill Goldfarb Fund. The fund was started by their parents, Leo and Celia Goldfarb z"l, in memory of Steven's daughter Sarah Jill. Over the years, the fund has provided scholarships and equipment for our preschool. Please be on the lookout for future ECEC fundraisers or help by donating to the ECEC to help us take advantage of this amazing opportunity that has been handed to us.

We had fun making decorations for our school sukkah (thank you TE Brotherhood for setting it up) with our Israeli friend Noya. Noya is the Shinshiniot that comes 3 mornings a week and teaches our students all about Israel. We loved eating our snack and lunch inside of it. We also celebrated with our families in the "Big" Sukkah. We shook the Etrog and Lulav, celebrated our weekly Ta'Am Shel Shabbat, and had a yummy "Pizza in the Hut" lunch.

Making Sukkah decorations with Noya

Lunch in out hut

At the beginning of this month, I am off to the Early Childhood Educators of Reform Judaism (ECE-RJ) conference. As a community of Jewish early childhood educators, we will move forward together to learn, reconnect, reimagine, and rebound. I can't wait to share all that I have learned with my staff and students.

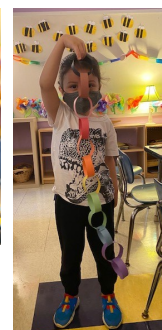

Families with young children, please join us for Shabbat B' Yachad, with dinner, on Friday, November 18th. Come enjoy songs, food, and your Temple community. Can't wait to see you there.

Last but not least I would like to wish you all a wonderful Thanksgiving, filled with love, gratitude, and good food.

L'hitraot!

Childhood Education

Brotherhood News

As we start to wind down from all of the High Holidays during the last few weeks, I wanted to thank all of the Brotherhood members who volunteered their time and effort in making these events seem flawless. You all make it seem like an easy task, but we all know the hard work, dedication and planning, weeks in advance that go into making this all come off seamlessly.

We also want to thank everyone who participated in the Food drive as the JFS Pantry is running low on needed foods for the people who cannot afford to feed themselves and their families. It was very successful and when we delivered the food was greatly appreciated by the volunteers at the Food Pantry. The final food weight was 2393 pounds! The Brotherhood has been very excited to welcome in new members recently and is especially happy to see these people jumping right in and volunteering to help out with many of the projects we have taken on. It is our hope, that as we become able to return to indoor Brotherhood meetings (or possibly outdoor) all those who have not joined us in the past, make it a priority that they stop by at one of our meetings and say hello and get to know us.

Looking ahead to Thanksgiving I am sure we will be doing a food drive to help make sure those who cannot afford to provide a Holiday meal for their family. We are all looking forward to the beautiful and updated expected reopening of the newly renovated Temple Emanuel on Greene Street, on Friday November 4th 2022, which will include a delicious oneg!

PLEASE-DON'T FORGET TO VOTE

Stay safe -Happy Thanksgiving to y'all,

B'nai Mitzvahs

Heidi Verhaal & David Levine are pleased to announce that their son Benjamin will be called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah during Shabbat Morning Services on Saturday, November 5, at 10:30am. While only invited guests of the family can attend the service in person, it will also be livestreamed on the Temple Facebook page.

Benjamin is currently a 7th grader at Kiser Middle School. He is the brother of Noah and the grandson of Barbara and Gerald Levine and Marsha and Jeff Verhaal. Benjamin enjoys piano, tennis and chess and is excited to become a bar mitzvah!

Debra & Steve LeWinter cordially invite the congregation to join them for Shabbat morning services on Saturday, November 19, at 10:30 am, when their child, Sage (they/them), will be called to the Torah as a B-Mitzvah. For those who prefer to attend virtually, the service will also be livestreamed on the Temple Facebook page.

Sage (they/them) is a rising 7th grade student at New Garden Friends School. They are the sibling of Aviva and the grandchild of Stefanie Seltzer, Yvette LeWinter, and Bob Vidman. Sage enjoys playing Magic the Gathering, Dungeons & Dragons, Performing, doing robotics at 6 Points SciTech, Dancing, and running a window washing/car detailing business.

Please note that all Shabbat Services and Chevra Torah will be held online and in-person this month, unless otherwise noted. Yahrzeits are read during Friday night Shabbat Services and on the following Saturday morning at the end of Chevra Torah (at approximately 10:15 a.m.)

Mission Statement

Temple Emanuel strives to be a place of Keruv, of closeness to God and Jewish culture. Temple Emanuel's mission is to bring its congregants closer to: Tikkun Olam - The commitment to repair God's world through the pursuit of justice; Tikkun Nefesh - Personal and spiritual growth as a Jew and as a human being; Talmud Torah - Life-long study of Torah and of Jewish history and tradition; Am Yisrael - The Jewish people, in Greensboro, the United States, Israel, and worldwide; Eretz Yisrael - The land, people, and the state of Israel; Mishpacha - A sense of extended family through a warm and supportive atmosphere and Reform Judaism - Its principles and values.

Diversity and Inclusivity Statement

Temple Emanuel is committed to inclusivity: Hachnasat Orchim (Hospitality) means welcoming people of different cultural backgrounds, races, nationalities, sexual orientations, genders, gender identities, gender expressions, physical and mental abilities, and ages. We recognize Jewish identity from both matrilineal and patrilineal descent. Our Rabbis are open to officiating at Jewish ceremonies for interfaith marriages. Appreciating the critical role played by non-Jewish parents in the upbringing of Jewish children, we encourage full participation in congregational and religious life by interfaith families.
